Advertisement.

The six following Songs form part of a Series of Compositions, which from a very early period of Life, and for twelve successive years, the Author has been accustomed to send, as a New Year's Gift, to the Lady to whom they are inscribed, and at whose encouraging suggestion they are now, with all humility, offered to the Subscribers, to whom the Author returns her most grateful thanks for the kindness and liberality with which they have supported her undertaking, and rendered its success so far beyond her expectations.

Do not forget me

Allegretto

Ah me! I an_ti_cipate sadly and pain_fully: Cares, and per_plexities now will be_set me: Re_gard not, A_manda, my sorrows dis_dainful_ly; When I am far from you, Do not for_get me! Re_ gard not, A - manda, my sorrows dis - dain - fully: When I am far from you Do not for - get me! Do not for - get me! Do not for - get me!

Drop now, but a tear of soft sen - si - bi - li - ty, How much it would soothe me, till next I be - hold you, And hope will fore_see, a_mid blissful tran_quilli_ty, A blush of de_light, when I spring to enfold you, And hope will fore_see a_mid blissful tran_quilli_ty, A

The Young Haidee

ALLEGRETTO

I en-ter thy garden of roses, Be-lov'd and fair Haidée, Each morning where Flora re--poses, For surely I see her in thee. Oh Lovely! thus low I im-plore thee, Re-ceive this fond truth from my tongue, Which utters its song to a_dore thee, Yet trembles for what it has sung: As the branch at the bidding of Nature, Adds fragrance and fruit to the tree, Thro' her eyes, thro' her e_ _very feature, Shines the soul of the young Hai_
